

Will Wheatley

SENIOR HSE CONSULTANT

Capability Overview

With over six years' experience in Health, Safety and Training, Will has a wide range of experience working for large companies at multiple levels, including corporate, management and operational. Will's experience covers multiple sites at state level around QLD in open cut and underground coal, exploration, and drilling.

Will has established knowledge in understanding legislation, company requirements and creating and implementing Integrated Management Systems compliant to AS 4801, ISO 14001 and ISO 9001.

Task Profile

- Development, auditing and review of Safety and Health Management Systems (SHMS).
- Safety management and supervision.
- Operational and systems audits.
- Walkthrough inspections and safety checklists.
- Risks and hazard assessments.
- Incident reporting and investigation.
- Rehabilitation and return to work.
- Workplace health and wellbeing assessments.
- Policies, procedures and safe operation practices.
- Safety Data Sheet (SDS), dust and chemical sample testing.
- Noise maps and sampling.
- Facilitation of risk assessments and risk management implementation.
- Safety training and inductions and competency based training and assessment.
- Drug and alcohol testing.

Qualifications

- Bachelor of Occupational Health and Safety.
- Bachelor of Human Movement Science.
- Certificate IV in Workplace Training and Assessment (TAELLN411).
- Certificate III in Fitness, Sport and Recreation.
- Certificate III in Business Retail.
- GIQ: Standard 11 Induction – Surface and Underground.
- S1, S2, and S3 Supervisor.
- G2 Facilitate the Risk Management Process.
- Apply Advanced First Aid and Resuscitation.
- MDT01A – Perform Drug and Alcohol Sample Screening.
- RII OHS204A Work Safely at Heights.
- RII OHS202A Work in Confined Space.
- IMS Lead Auditor AU/TL + QM, EM and OH.
- Safetywise ICAM Basic Investigator Course.
- Current Coal Board Medical.